ABOUT THE HOSTS

Amanda B

Amanda's career is all about organization, communication and connection. Her background includes corporate event planning, business ownership, and virtual meeting facilitation. Her work in entertainment services includes weddings, corporate functions and community celebrations. Amanda is also deeply rooted in community service. She brings a calm, focused approach to the show that inspires confidence and connection.

David Gale

Deejay David Gale is a self-proclaimed Funlanthropist. He's a radio station manager and program director with decades of experience in media and performance. Along with his role as host of FUN With Amandavo and Aaron, he has won accolades including SAM Award Winner, CAT Award Nominee and a Best Radio Program award. This recognition clearly shows David has seamlessly integrated himself into the worlds of broadcasting and community theater.

Aaron Cheshire

As a young man, Aaron struggled with dyslexia. Despite that, he graduated from school. But at age 25, he was involved in a near-fatal car accident. He was forced to relearn the simplest tasks and faced a long road to recovery. Despite appearing on the hit TV show, Canada's Worst Driver, Aaron got behind the wheel and discovered a newfound sense of confidence. The radio show has helped him overcome limitations and boost his self-esteem.
