WELCOME TO THE CALEB COLLIER SHOW.

This is the show that dispels the myth of separation of Church and state—the Church should influence the state, while the state stays out of the Church! Episodes feature lively discussions, interviews, and current events from a faith-and-freedom perspective.

Show topics include:

- ★ Dispelling the “myth” of separation of Church and state; Church influence on culture/politics
- ★ The Constitution, Bill of Rights (esp. 1st and 2nd Amendments), limited government, liberty
- ★ Patriotism, pro-life, pro-America, anti-globalism, censorship
- ★ Interviews with conservative, libertarian, Christian, and activist guests
- ★ Local/national politics, mandates, education, free speech, private property
- ★ Humor and calls to action on various topics (history, preparedness, culture)
- ★ Civic engagement—getting Christians “plugged into politics and back into the pews”

If your station does conservative talk, skip the tired weekend reruns and add something fresh: THE CALEB COLLIER SHOW! Your listeners (and advertisers) will thank you for it.

ABOUT THE HOST

Caleb Collier is a distinguished US Marine veteran whose commitment to service extends far beyond the military. His telecommunication skills supported his fellow Marines during critical missions. Later on as a civilian, his passion for aiding others led to a role as an Emergency Medical Technician (EMT), providing life saving care to many.

Caleb also served his community as a councilman in Spokane Valley, Washington. His bold stances included opposing a vaccine mandate in public schools.

His commitment to civic engagement on a national level led him to launch THE CALEB COLLIER SHOW, bridging the gap between faith and politics in an entertaining, engaging format. Caleb inspires others to voice their beliefs and actively participate in the democratic process. He encourages engagement at all levels, urging individuals to understand the power they hold in shaping policy in their local communities.

In a world where division often overshadows unity, Caleb Collier stands as a beacon of hope, rallying others to share in the responsibility of nurturing a society grounded in values and informed dialogue.
